

NICOLE & LEIGH ARE GETTING MARRIED!

LEST WE FORGET THEIR ANNIVERSARY

Nicole and Leigh are delighted that you are here to celebrate their wedding day.

Nicole was sheepish when she first met Leigh; This may have been due to his New Zealand origin or his gentlemanly charms as seen through the eyes of her beer goggles.

Leigh was drawn to Nicole's exceptionally great friendship circle, her chocolate brownie baking ability and her drinking stamina.

Over the last five years, they've fallen in love, travelled, bought a house and become parents to Penny, who shares Nicole's love of shoes.

REMEMBERANCE DAY: A DAY TO REMEMBER

This year marks the 98th anniversary of the Armistice which ended the First World War (1914-18). On this day, it is important to remember those who have fought for our countries and the many soldiers, families and friends who have been impacted by the wars which provide us our freedom today.

The 11th November each year will now be a day that we will remember for a multitude of reasons.

Dear Penny

Do you need advice? The pawsome Penny can help! Email advice@pennyspals.com

Dear Penny,

I have a problem. Every time my parents are out, I do my absolute best to hunter gather for them. I will often catch and kill the long black snake attached to Mum's hair straightener, as well as dissecting the leeches with pointy bottoms that are often hooked on Mum's feet when she goes out. I feel like my protecting goes unappreciated, and I am never rewarded for my hard work.

-Archie

Dear Archie,

I have no advice. My parent's are also unappreciative of my assistance. Keep persevering, as I do on a daily basis.

Love, Penny
